

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2023

Blood donation camp at Dibru College

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

DIBRUGARH, Oct 11: The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS), district branch organized a blood donation camp in association with Youth Red Cross Unit of Dibru College along with NSS, NCC and IQAC unit of the college.

The other important departments such as Blood Bank of Assam Medical College and Hospital (AMCH) and Archana Hospital here also extended their help and cooperation for successful accomplishment of blood donation camp. Prior to the blood donation camp, a meeting was organized to create awareness among the students about blood donation and its benevolent aspects. More than 100 students took part in the meeting, the organizers informed.

Dr Vivian Saikia, member of Indian Red Cross Youth unit delivered the welcome address to the dignitaries and participants. Dr Pankaj Kumar Shrutikar, secretary, Red Cross Society spoke about the blood donation camp and urged everyone to donate blood without fear. The president of IRCS, Dibrugarh, Dr Pranit Kumar Chaudhury emphasized on doing good to humanity through blood donation, stating that it's a greatest gift.

Dr Jahnabi Chetia, MO of Assam Medical College explained the benefits of blood donation and urged everyone to donate blood. She said that blood donation is a true example of humanity. Dr RN Borbora, vice chairman, IRCS, Dibrugarh spoke at length about the health benefits of donating blood. The camp was inaugurated by Dr Ranjan Changmai, Principal, Dibru College.